The Angel of FORGIVENESS

The Angel of Forgiveness encourages and prompts us to look at past hurts and resentments in a new light. We gain in self-respect and wisdom when we are able to let go of the past and forgive those who have hurt us. Otherwise we remain stuck in believing we are victims, with no possibility of altering our lives.

Forgiveness does not mean we condone bad behaviour, nor does it mean we necessarily have to like the people who treated us badly. It does mean, however, that as we forgive others we release our anger and resentment. When we forgive we are left with lightness of spirit and a good feeling about ourselves. Without that we do not have any possibility for true empowerment. We would still believe that others did us wrong and we would always carry that resentment. It corrodes our insides; it is the stuff disease is made of. We perpetrate abuse and injustice on ourselves by carrying negative feelings around with us.

Forgiveness sets us free and helps to open up a deeper channel for relating to others. We may need help to forgive, and The Angel of forgiveness offers us the grace to find tenderness in our hearts and the courage to ask for assistance when forgiveness seems too daunting a task.

Forgiveness helps us to be receptive to healing and to love. When we forgive we are increasing our levels of self-esteem, because, in fact, the point of real power rest only within us. We are, in effect, saying we no longer wish to be victims of abuse, treachery, or any other form of negativity which impeded our happiness. Forgiveness, like acknowledgement, is what helps us grow into happy and healthy people.

We can ask The Angel of Forgiveness to show us the path to releasing blame and hurt. It is really only our willingness to free ourselves from the burden of negativity that will kick-start the process of healing. This release gives us the opportunity to clean up other aspects of our lives where there may be hidden resentments and sorrows blocking our joy. By asking The Angel of Forgiveness to help us release our negativity we are enabling the process of healing to start.

The Archangel RAPHAEL

Raphael is responsible for healing the earth and its inhabitants. He is credited with healing Abraham after he was circumcised and is the angel who handed Moses a book of all the herbs which exist to heal maladies. The book of Tobias in the Old testament relates how Raphael healed Tobias's father of blindness with an ointment made from the burned gall-bladder of a large fish. Raphael is variously known as the Overseer of the Evening Winds, Guardian of the Tree of Life in the Garden of Eden, Angel of Repentance, Prayer, Love, Joy and Light. He is the Angel of Healing, Science and knowledge. He is also called the Angel of Providence who watches over all humanity.

His name means 'Divine Healer' or 'God Heals'. Raphael is the spiritual source behind all cures, and as a messenger of Divine Providence he brings healing to all who seek wholeness. He stands for the definitive, essential cure to all ills, which is the return to the Source. Raphael assists us to heal our bodies, minds and hearts. He helps us to achieve health and wholeness. He offers to help all who suffer and need healing, and whenever possible alleviates pain. When we open our hearts to healing, Raphael guides us to the healers, therapists and counsellors who do their best to help us. As we take more responsibility for our own healing he encourages the healer within each of us who knows what is best for our health and vitality.

He can help us to see the healing lessons in illness and to understand what suffering can teach us about ourselves. When we choose a healthy path his spirit guides us to attain maximum health.

As we transform our wounded minds and hearts we come close to touching Raphael's wings and gaining access to his Divine gifts. He is always available to guide us to wholeness and harmony. We need only wish it for ourselves.

The Guardian Angel of YOUNG LOVE

This is the Guardian Angel who watches over young love and helps give new and tender relationships their beauty and sweetness. It is also this angel who helps us to feel safe in a relationship, and it enables us to trust in our ability to express thoughts and feelings openly and freely. This angel assists us to enhance our self-worth, and encourages intimacy with people who value us and who see our light and beauty.

We ask this angel to bless us and protect us from people who are damaging and manipulative or who are unable to share themselves in an open or honest way. We can ask this angel to support us when we feel vulnerable or insecure, and to assist us when we meet someone we sense is worthwhile but who may be shy or reserved.

This Guardian Angel guides individuals towards potential partners, helping them to feel attracted to the very people who will respect their individuality and safely allow them to express their true sense of self in a kind and gentle manner. It is this angel who looks over and guides us towards making healthy friendships which will give us deep and lasting happiness.

We can pray to The Guardian Angel of Young Love whenever we enter into a relationship and need help and assurance that it is for our highest good. We can call upon this angel whenever our present relationship are stuck or stale and need revitalising. This is The Guardian Angel who blesses and renews the spirit of love and loving sexuality within us all. We ask it to protect and guard our most intimate relationships and to keep the bonds of love secure from negative forces which may be excluding, separating or in any way attempting to place a wedge in our most cherished friendships.
